FOOTBALL SCORES

San Francisco, Oct. 19. — A thousand joy-crazed college men, with arms locked, four abreast, went deliriously reeling in a rollicking, noisy, jubilant serpentine procession over the Berkeley gridiron field late yesterday afternoon, wildly exulting because California's freshmen had just defeated Stanford by a score of 12 to 0.

Three thousand spectators lingered upon the commanding grand stands and on the hillside slopes beyond the fence silently watching the antics of the California undergraduates until the formation developed into a spectacular parade with men in single file their hands on each other's shoulders, singing and plodding around the outer bounds of the white-marked battlefield, amid the applause of the on-lookers, while the 'varsity band headed the line. It was all the spontaneous outburst of satisfied partisans who had seen their superbly superior team win a decisive victory after three consecutive years of California freshmen defeats by first-year eleven from Palo Alto.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 18. — Yale defeated the Pennsylvania State College eleven today at football by the score of 11 to 0. The game was the hardest that Yale has been called upon to play so far this season.

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 18. — Five thousand spectators witnessed the Military Academy football team score against the strong Harvard eleven in a fiercely contested battle here today. The game was an exciting one from start to finish, resulting in a score of 14 to 6 in favor of Harvard. Early in the first half Harvard succeeded in advancing the ball within twenty yards of West Point's goal line, from which they made steady gains, until Jones was forced over for a touchdown. Barnard kicked an easy goal.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18. — The University of Pennsylvania football eleven was defeated on Franklin field today by Brown University, 15 to 6, in halves of twenty-five and twenty minutes each. Brown scored two touchdowns and kicked a field goal, while Pennsylvania scored one touchdown.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 18. — Princeton's football team defeated Washington and Jefferson here today by a score of 35 to 9. The game was noteworthy for several spectacular plays, two of which were made by Harold Weekes.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 18. — The Cornell football eleven was defeated on Percy field by the Carlisle Indians today. The score was 10 to 6, and all of the scoring was done in the first half.

Chicago, Oct. 18. — Northwestern 0, Chicago 12.

Milwaukee, Oct. 18. — Wisconsin 52, Beloit 0.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 18. — Naval Academy 5, Lehigh 5.

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 18. — University of Illinois 29, Purdue 5.

Minneapolis, Oct. 18. — Minnesota 0, Nebraska 6.

HANLON THE VICTOR

San Francisco, Oct. 22. — Game Dennis McFadden more than met all match last night at the Reliance Club, Oakland, in bright-faced Eddie Hanlon, the latest and perhaps the best bantam San Francisco has produced.

The end came in the sixth round. It was not a sudden termination, nor was the result unlooked for in exactly the way it happened after the opening round, as Hanlon was the master at every stage in the proceedings. Eddie systematically wore McFadden down, and when the tide came in his favor with a rush he was a relentless foe. A good left to the jaw in the early part of the round saw the beginning of the end, as it staggered the "Kid." A moment later another left in the same place dropped him to the floor. When he arose Hanlon was right after him, and twice again did the "Kid" go down and take the count. When he regained his feet for the third time Hanlon saw victory in his grasp. He gave no chance for the distressed fighter to recuperate, but waded in to put on the finishing touches. Blows to the jaw were mainly responsible for the weakening process, but when McFadden felt his guard fall as he staggered to his feet a terrific right in the stomach finished him.

Just as Referee Eddie Smith counted "ten" Dennis made a mighty effort and once more stood erect, but he was too late. He pretended to be full of fight and made a protest at being called out, but his pretense misled no one, for he had received the worst beating of his career.

Pretoria, Oct. 18. — After having worn out ninety-eight pairs of shoes, Schilling, the professional pedestrian, has just reached here from Bloemfontein, where he was received with great plaudits. He has still another 7000 miles to walk within twelve months. From here he goes to Cairo. Schilling says he expects to go to New York next year and travel on foot thence to San Francisco.

CALIFORNIA MASONS

San Francisco, Oct. 18. — The California Grand Lodge of Free Masons opened its fourth day of the annual communication yesterday morning, disjunct of the remaining reports, enacted some changes in the laws, elected officers for the ensuing year, had appointive officers named and standing committees appointed by the new grand master, had its officers installed, with all the ceremony and rites of the order, and adjourned for one year amid the hearty congratulations of the successful and harmonious session in the history of the order. The election occupied nearly the entire day, though the only office for which there was some competition was grand junior warden, always regarded as the stepping stone to the highest position within the jurisdiction.
